1. DEFINED TERMS

1.1. “Motor Carrier” or “Carrier”

Motor Carrier, or Carrier, means a for-hire motor carrier or a private motor carrier with authority issued by the Land Public Transport Commission (SPAD) for operators in Peninsular Malaysia and Commercial Vehicles Licensing Board (CVLB) for operators in Sabah and Sarawak, in accordance with the Commercial Vehicles Licensing Board Act, 1987 to haul freight for third parties. The term includes a Carrier’s drivers, whether employees or independent contractors, as well as a Carrier’s agents, officers and representatives. A Carrier who accesses or uses the Service is an independent contractor and remains solely responsible for screening, selecting, hiring, training, supervising, managing, assigning, and dispatching drivers. A Carrier is solely responsible for the inspection and maintenance of motor vehicle equipment and accessories. Carrier is solely responsible for its own actions, omissions, training, oversight, compliance with regulatory and safety requirements, and all management of Carrier’s equipment, services, drivers, employees, contractors, agents and servants. A Carrier maintains sole control over the methods and results by which it performs freight transportation services, and retains the sole duty to provide, maintain, manage and control the equipment, personnel, and expertise required to transport a Shipper’s freight. Ezyhaul is not an agent for any Carrier. No Carrier is ever an agent for Ezyhaul. The provisions of Section 3 apply to Carriers.

Ezyhaul is not a Motor Carrier. No interpretation of written or oral remarks in any agreement or document shall be construed to imply Ezyhaul is a Motor Carrier, or that Ezyhaul is subject to the regulatory or legal requirements or liabilities of a Motor Carrier.

1.2. “Broker”

Ezyhaul’s sole duty is to arrange for the transportation of freight by a Motor Carrier that is authorized to operate by SPAD or CLVB. As a broker, Ezyhaul does not take possession, custody or control of any freight. Ezyhaul does not assume any possessory rights or obligations, nor assume any financial responsibility whatsoever, for freight, including loss and damage liability.

Ezyhaul offers a platform to connect Shippers and Carriers, but does not provide shipping services or act in any way as a Carrier. It is up to the Carrier to provide shipping services, which may be scheduled through the use of the Service. Ezyhaul has no responsibility for any shipping services provided to Shippers by such Carriers.

1.3. “Shipper” or “Customer”

A Shipper or Customers owns or possesses the rights to tangible property or freight and/or means any party acting on behalf of the owner or any persons legally interested in the goods and has the authority to provide instructions or be entitled to the rights or obligations under the contract of carriage concluded with the company. The Shipper is a person or entity who seeks the transportation of freight by a licensed Motor Carrier. Ezyhaul is not an agent for the Shipper. The provisions of Section 4 apply to Shippers.

Shippers may cancel a Shipment at any time prior to it being accepted by a Carrier without any charges. A Carrier may view a list of the Shipments available to it at any time and accept a Shipment through the Service. Once a Carrier accepts a Shipment, that Carrier will be assigned to perform transportation services related to the Shipment. Upon a Carrier’s acceptance, Ezyhaul will notify Shipper that the Shipment has been accepted. Ezyhaul does not guarantee that a Shipment will be accepted by a Carrier.

2.2. Completion of the Shipment

Once a Shipment is completed, the Carrier will upload to the Service: (1) the applicable bill of lading (“Bill of Lading”); or (2) a proof of delivery signed by the authorized recipient (“Proof of Delivery”).
